

2010 Annual Report

The City of Refuge International, Inc.'s Board of Directors wants to extend a heartfelt thanks to everyone who made 2010 possible. Due to your monthly and other donations, lives were literally saved, empowered, and made more joyful and livable.

Board members include officers Dave Lanning, Chairman, Richard Kitumba, President, John Ilunga, Vice President, Pat May, Treasurer, Gwen Dockery, Secretary, and members Laurene Bates, Renee Phelps, Daniel Lanning, and Heidi Gaines.

2010's two biggest events were our fundraisers, raising $7,000, and the trip to Kamina, DRC to see the children. Without your help with fundraising, the trip would not have been possible.

In summary of your accomplishments for 2010:

By the Numbers:

- > We added 2 children in January, 2010 bringing the total supported to 93.
- > Your recycling brought in over $1,400 for our High School Scholarship Program.
- > Two of our 10 high school students graduated.
- > Ten goats were supplied for foster families through our Livestock Development Program.
- > All 93 children and 10 Scholarship Recipients were inoculated.
- > Six Board Members spent eight joyful days with the children in the DRC.

Other Accomplishments:

- > Field Representative was given a new motorcycle to assist in visits and food distributions.
- > Several children were treated in the hospital for various ailments.
- > Mosquito nets, blankets, and mattresses were supplied as needed.
- > April, Birthday Month, brought a birthday party for all with a nice meal and celebration.
- > Christmas was celebrated with a festive meal for families and gifts for the children.

We're in the News and Online:

- > July 5th, the Register Guard, our local newspaper, printed "For the Children," featuring Richard and The City of Refuge International.
- > December 1st, after the team returned from being with the children, the Register Guard featured three women team members in, "Giving and Receiving."
- > March, 2011, look for The City of Refuge International to be featured in The Readers Digest!
- > Become a fan on Facebook.
- > Check out our new documentary on YouTube.
- > See our website for updates, forms, and to donate.

Looking to the Future:

- > Two more children were added in January, 2011, bringing our total to 95.
- > Two of our high school graduates started college, still under scholarship.
- > Two additional High School Scholars were added, bringing the total to 12 students.
